

HON. GILBERT HARTSFIELD PASSES INTO GREAT BEYOND.

One of Leon's Progressive Farmers, and County Representative in Lower Branch of Legislature, died at his home last week.

The many friends of Hon. Gilbert Hartsfield learn with sorrow of his death last week.

Mr. Hartsfield was one of the most progressive farmers in Leon county, and at one time represented his people in the legislature. In this capacity he was a faithful and earnest worker for the best of our section. He knew, and was ever watchful, of measures which were expected to come up that would undoubtedly result in harm to our section of the State. He worked in harmony with the representatives of the people for the people. In representing Leon county, Mr. Hartsfield made a servant worthy of his position and won the esteem and respect of all those with whom he came in contact.

The funeral services were held from Mason Church Sunday morning at ten thirty o'clock. Many friends and admirers of Mr. Hartsfield attended from Tallahassee.

GENERAL MATHIS DEAD.

Funeral Services Wednesday.—Comptroller's Office Closed in Respect.
 Interment at Bloomingdale.

The funeral services over the body of General Benjamin N. Mathis were held Wednesday afternoon from the Boulevard Methodist Church, Rev. W.
 G. Fletcher, pastor of the church, conducting the services. The interment took place in Bloomingdale, Hillsboro county, Florida.

General Mathis died at his home on west Gaines street Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

He was born in Galesville, Cherokee county, Alabama, September 18, 1839, moving to Tennessee in the year 1842, where he spent his days of youth. He was married to Miss Nannie Chandler, of Tennessee, August 27, 1869. Eleven children were born to them, two dying in infancy.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted in the Artillery Corps of Tennessee and was soon promoted to the staff of General Alex P. Stewart. He was wounded in the battle of New Hope Church and again in the battle of Franklin. He served with distinction throughout the war and at the close was Inspector general of D. H.
 Hill's division of the army of Tennessee, being paroled at Greensboro, N. C., May 3, 1865. General Alex P. Stewart said of him: "I believe his record to be unimpeachable."

General Mathis moved to Florida in 1865, locating at Sydney, Hillsboro county. In the year of '89 he represented that county in the lower house of the State legislature. He moved to Tallahassee March 5, 1905 and for five years has been chief of the pension bureau. He served a year as commander of the third brigade of the Florida Confederate Veterans with the rank of brigadier-general, declining reelection.

He was a christian gentleman of the highest type, a member of Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church south, dying ripe in years, high in esteem of his fellow men and in the triumphs of the christian faith.

As a mark of respect and a tribute to General Mathis, the comptroller's office in the State capitol was closed from the hour of his death until after the funeral.

In attendance at the services were the Confederate Veterans of the Lamar Camp, the Masonic order and member's of the governor's cabinet. The pallbearers were Governor Albert W. Gu-christ, Mayor-elect D. M. Lowery, Hon.
 D. E. McIn, commissioner of agriculture, Hon. J. C. Lunning, secretary to the I. I. board, Capt. Charles A.
 Finley and Sheppard W. Clarke, of the comptroller's office.

The casket was draped with flags of the Confederacy and covered with many beautiful floral tributes. The body was dressed in his Confederate Veteran's uniform of the rank of brigadier-general.

General Mathis leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his departure.
 His children are Mrs. F. C. Paul, of Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Guy H. Crusselle, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. A. W. Auper, of Dunwoody, Ga.; Miss Nellie Mathis, of this city; Messrs. George Mathis, of Tampa, Fla.; Chandler Mathis, of Louisiana; Benjamin Mathis, Jr., of this city.

 bons? They are valuable. 40.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a meeting of the senior class of the Leon High School January 26th, the following resolutions were adopted:

We, the senior class of the Leon High School, desire to express our heartfelt sympathy with our friend and classmate, Albert Mathis, in the great sorrow that has befallen him in the death of his father.

We feel deeply for him and pray that our Heavenly Father will be with him in his trials and impart strength and comfort to him.

DOWNWARD COURSE

Fast Being Realized by Tallahassee People.

A little backache at first.
 Daily increasing until the back is lame and weak.

Urinary disorders quickly follow.
 Diabetes and finally Bright's Disease.
 This is the downward course of kidney illa.

Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Tallahassee citizen.

Mrs. B. F. Isler, 425 Boulevard St., Tallahassee, Fla., says: "Weakened kidneys undermined my general health and I felt miserable for a long time. I had no ambition and the last work tired me. My rest at night was fitful, my appetite became poor and my whole body was racked with pain. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at the Hardee-Smith Co.'s Drug Store and found them to be just what I needed. They gave me prompt relief and for that reason I most heartily recommend them to anyone afflicted with kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
